Subject: Snow Removal Status Website

Dear Neighbors – The snowfall last night is being cleared by the County. Their current estimated completion for County neighborhoods is 5AM tomorrow, so please be patient. You can check status by going to the following County website:

<https://www.montgomerycountymd.gov/snow/snow-status.html>

You can also view traffic cameras by following a link at the bottom of the snow status display.

If you venture out on foot or by car, be extra careful!

And if you have children who are available to help your neighbors clear sidewalks and driveways, send me their contact information so I can post it on our website.

Here's a list provided in December by Derwood South:
